The Revival of Beauty

Aesthetics, Experience, and Philosophy

By Catherine Wesselinoff

This book provides descriptive accounts of two schools of thought in the philosophy of beauty: the 20th-century Anti-Aesthetic movement and the 21st-century Beauty Revival movement. Anti-Aestheticism is devoted to a decisive negation of beauty. The Beauty-Revival movement argues for beauty as an experience that extends primarily to sensual experience. After reconstructing these positions, the author elaborates on the notion of beauty as a lived experience through three key moments: the conditions that constitute an experience of beauty, the attitudinal features most likely to lead to the experience of beauty, and the results of the experience of beauty.
